U.S. Taxpayer Straw Poll on the "Social Security Guarantee Act"

Question #1: Many Americans think Social Security is a contract with the government: you pay in and you are paid back. But the Supreme Court ruled (Flemming v. Nestor) the government has no obligation to pay it back and in fact they can spend it on anything else they want. Before you received this letter were you aware of that?

81%	Yes
12%	No
7%	Undecided

Question #2: A host of economic and political experts agree the major reasons Social Security is soon headed for bankruptcy is because Congress' decades-long habit of raiding the Social Security Trust Fund to fund their own political self interests is draining it. Do you personally approval of allowing politicians to use Social Security funds for other political purposes?

9%	Yes
82%	No
9%	Undecided

Question #3: The money that Congress has "diverted" from our Social Security trust fund has largely been spent on special interest projects as favor to those who have the power to help them get re-elected. Were you aware that our Social Security savings are being spent on projects such as these?

38%	Yes
61%	No
1%	Undecided

Question #4: As our staggering $36 Trillion Dollar national debt continues to soar and Social Security is headed for inevitable bankruptcy, Congress will be considering proposals that may include reducing the amount of Social Security benefit payments rather than cutting themselves off from raiding the Social Security trust fund till for their own political self interests. Would you support legislation that would prohibit politicians from being able to reduce the amount of your Social Security benefits?

3%	Yes
72%	No
25%	Undecided

Question #5: The Social Security Guarantee Act would guarantee anyone eligible would get their full benefits-- that is, get back what they paid into the program. It would prohibit politicians in Washington from reducing the amount of your Social Security check. Do you favor passage of the Social Security Guarantee Act now pending in Congress?

88%	Yes
3%	No
9%	Undecided
